A message from Michelle to you...

First I would like to take a moment to thank all the residents for being so friendly and welcoming me into their home here at Lutheran Manor. Your kindness has been overwhelming.

Now on to some spring items... For those of you who enjoy some fresh air and time outside, I invite you to join our Walkers Club. Starting in April, the club will meet every Friday at 2:00. The walk stretches around Lutheran Manor Apartments along David's walk. You can walk as little or as much as you are able. Come out and earn your free hat and t-shirt. I hope to see you there!

Also, remember to mark your calendar for Friday, June 5th, for our Annual Pig Roast. I know I am looking forward to it, and I hope to see everyone there!

Think Spring!

Mercer Museum
In Doylestown
Thursday, May 7th
(Van leaves at 8:30 am)

The Mercer Museum is a history museum of everyday life in America during the 18th and 19th centuries. Henry Mercer (1856-1930) gathered the collection and constructed the Museum. The collection of some 40,000 objects documents the lives and tasks of early Americans through the tools that met their needs and wants prior to the Industrial Revolution, or about 1850.

Cost: $9.00

Tour the Museum and stop for lunch

EASTER DAWN
WORSHIP at 6:30am
on Sunday, April 5th
in the Lounge.

Holy Humor...

A time to weep, and a time to laugh... Ecclesiastes 3:4a

Laughter is wonderful. Doctors tell us it is powerful medicine for both mind and body. The Bible says that there is a time to laugh.

At this time of year many Christian Churches set aside a Sunday (often the Sunday after Easter Sunday) to celebrate God's gift of laughter and joy. Pastors and priests deliberately include amusing stories and jokes in their sermons in an attempt to make the faithful laugh. It is a way of celebrating the resurrection of Christ – the supreme joke God played on Satan by raising Jesus from the dead.

So, as we celebrate this glorious Easter season here's some humor to keep you smiling...

✘ A pastor was speaking to a group of 2nd-graders about the resurrection when one student asked, "What did Jesus say right after He came out of the grave?" The pastor explained that the Gospels do not tell us what He said. The hand of one little girl shot up. "I know what He said: He said, 'Tah-dah!'"

✘ Borrow money from a pessimist, they don't expect it back --Gravity always gets me down - -They told me I was gullible and I believed them -- It's bad luck to be superstitious--The early bird gets the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese --Corduroy pillows: They're making headlines! --There are three kinds of people: Those who can count and those who can't. --Always go to other people's funerals, or they won't go to yours --As long as there are tests, there will be prayer in public school

✘ Bulletin Bloopers: • The cost for attending the Fasting and Prayer conference includes meals. • Barbara remains in the hospital and needs blood donors for more transfusions. She is also having trouble sleeping and requests tapes of Pastor Jack's sermons. • Attend and you will hear an excellent speaker and have a healthy lunch. • Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days. Remember... You don't stop laughing because you grow old. You grow old because you stop laughing! A Blessed, Joyful Easter, Pastor Clark
